Virtual Offerings with Beth Am Israel (Penn Valley):

1. What Does Environmental Justice Look Like and How Do We Achieve It? 9am-10:15am

Register here.

Join us on zoom for a meaningful and productive conversation about Environmental Racism and what we can do to right this wrong. Reverend Carolyn Caveness of Bethel AME Church will lead this important discussion. Read her impressive bio here:

<https://www.bethelardmore.org/our-pastor>

2. Choosing between food or education: what food insecurity on college campuses looks like today. 10:15am-11:15am Register here.

Nazun, a national leadership development organization focused on equipping the next generation to fight food insecurity on college campuses, wants you to know that 39% of four year students experience food insecurity every year they're in school. Join CEO Rebecca Bar to learn more about who today's college students are, what they are experiencing, and what you can do to help, alongside the 60+ campus and community chapters nationwide. Rebecca will share ways you can get involved in this pervasive and stigmatizing issue on today's campuses across the US.

3. Countering climate mis/disinformation in conversations and in the media. 10:30am-12pm Register here.

We will focus on how to respond to wrong climate statements 1) in conversations when we hear misinformation from our families and colleagues and 2) climate disinformation from the media. We will be discussing ideas from communications experts and practicing appropriate responses. If you have heard such zingers please come prepared to share them with us and we will discuss how to address them.

(10am-12pm) Virtual or In-Person “Restoring Hope & Dignity: MLK Service Day 2023” hosted by Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) and Kingdom Builders Network (KBN): more information and sign-up here: <https://mcc.org/get-involved/events/restoring-hope-dignity-mlk-service-day-2023><https://mcc.org/get-involved/events/restoring-hope-dignity-mlk-service-day-2023>
